

DIRECTORATE CHANGE

Dublin, Ireland – 26 September 2018: Datalex plc (ISE: DLE), a leading provider of digital commerce solutions to global travel retailers, today announces that David Kennedy has informed the board of his intention to resign as CFO and step down as an Executive Director of Datalex plc to take up a CEO role in a private company outside of the industry.

David will remain in Datalex until the end of the year and will play an important role in assisting the transition to his successor. The process to appoint a new CFO has commenced and an announcement will be made in due course.

Commenting today, Aidan Brogan CEO of Datalex said: “During his 11 years with Datalex, David has been instrumental in providing financial leadership through a period of significant performance and growth for our business. David’s commitment and resourcefulness have played a key part in the growth of Datalex into the enterprise it is today. I will miss David but I look forward to working with him over the coming months as we appoint his successor and I wish him every success as he begins this new chapter in his career”.

Paschal Taggart, Chairman of Datalex said: “The board is very grateful to David for his contribution to the growth of Datalex over the past 11 years. We wish him every success in his future endeavours.”

David Kennedy, CFO of Datalex said: “After 11 great years at Datalex, it’s time for me to pursue a new and exciting opportunity. Datalex today is a completely different business from the one I joined in 2007 and I have enjoyed every part of the journey. I wish Aidan, the board and all the phenomenal team at Datalex the very best for the future.”
